A New Departure in the Coffee Business.

We have lately received from the East a full set of machinery for roasting, grinding and packing coffee, and we are now prepared to furnish, ready for use, as good a grade of coffee as can be found anywhere. We will only put up two grades—you can "pay your money and take your choice."

For the trade we will pack a one-pound package, (4 dozen to the case), freshly roasted, ground and packed in a neat and attractive paper, which is prepared especially to preserve the strength and aroma of the coffee.

This is the only establishment that puts up Kona coffee, which is far superior to any imported.

In opening up a trade in this line it is to our interest to give the public a good coffee,
